WHS Consultation Emerging Items

Preliminary not exhaustive list of Emerging Topics and Sub-topics

Emerging Topic	Overview	Sub-topics Sub-topics
1 Ensuring affected people, particularly women, have a stronger voice and greater role in humanitarian action	This topic deals with the need to empower affected people during humanitarian action.	 Accountability to affected people Community engagement Programming based on the needs of affected people, including marginalized groups and the most vulnerable Voice and participation by affected people, including marginalized groups and the most vulnerable Subsidiarity Other: Prioritizing Role of Youth Other: Corruption Exact Match
2 Confronting international humanitarian law ("IHL") violations and finding new ways to protect and assist people in conflict	This topic examines the challenges associated with providing humanitarian aid in conflict.	 Respect for international humanitarian law Humanitarian access/states' duty to facilitate access Humanitarian Principles: impartiality, independence and neutrality Impact of counter-terrorism laws on principled humanitarian engagement Regional frameworks for assistance and protection for internally displaced persons ("IDPs") Links with peace negotiations and peacebuilding work Protection Proximity and remote management Security of aid workers

Emerging Topic	Overview	Sub-topics Sub-topics
3 Localizing preparedness and response	This topic recognizes the potential of regional, national, and local actors to contribute to aid efforts and addresses the need to strengthen local capacities.	 Other: Role of Media in conflicts / crises Other: Role of education/schools in conflicts Other: Dialogue w/ Parties Other: Depoliticization Other: Conflict sensitivity in humanitarian action Other: War in Urban Centers Developing national and regional deployable capacity, including urban experts Engaging the private sector Encouraging national governments to invest in their disaster risk management capacity Localizing humanitarian financing Promoting role of regional organizations Reinforcing the role of governments in crisis management Building preparedness and response capacities of municipalities Other: Building a resilience Framework Other: Community involvement for needs-based innovation
4 Developing new approaches for managing recurrent and protected crises	This topic acknowledges the connection between crisis preparedness/response and development aid and deals with the need to better use risk information and coordinate risk management.	 Addressing humanitarian-development divide Better links with climate change adaptation Collective approach to crisis management Effective use of risk information Multi-year planning and finance Protracted displacement

Emerging Topic	Overview	Sub-topics
		 Risk financing and safety nets Links with SDGs, Sendai Framework and climate change negotiations Resilience in urban centers where displaced migrate
5 Adapting the humanitarian system to new contexts, actors, and challenges	This topic deals with the need to design a more effective humanitarian system that is better able to respond to future challenges and distinctive contexts, in conjunction with non-traditional actors.	 Adapting the "international humanitarian system"/IASC architecture Coordination Regionalization Standards/results framework Future challenges/risks Cooperation with other actors (private sector, military) Urbanization Use of innovations including data and analytics tools Other: Political Will and Action
6 Global action to address the finance gap	This topic examines means to improve the management and use of humanitarian financing and explores innovative financial instruments and mechanisms.	 Cash-based assistance Diversifying the humanitarian finance base Increasing efficiencies Leveraging religious giving New financial instruments and mechanisms Transparency and traceability of funding Understanding local and national resources Referring chronic caseloads to development partners High-level Panel on humanitarian financing Creation of a medium to longer term forecasting model for humanitarian financing to help facilitate greater predictability and

Emerging Topic	Overview	Sub-topics
		ability to meet future requirements
		Other: Donor fatigue/ensuring financial pledges are fulfilled
7 Creating an enabling environment and investment in innovation to better deal with current and future humanitarian challenges	This topic questions how to foster innovation that can help meet humanitarian challenges.	Coordination between actors
		Cooperation with other actors (scientific community, academia/private sector)
		Funding R&D and innovations
		Innovative ideas and technologies
		 Legal, regulatory and ethical frameworks for humanitarian innovation
		Innovation management principles
		Platforms and mechanisms for identification of innovations
		Scaling up of innovations
		Innovation priorities
		Other: Community involvement for needs-based innovation
		Other: Role of Education in Innovation
		Other: Improving Knowledge Through Traditional Means
8 Gender	This topic deals with the aid needs and capacities of women and girls.	Effective protection and response against sexual and gender- based violence
		Empowerment of women's NGOs
		Gender equality programming including gender analysis and needs assessment
		Women peace and security/women in conflict issues
		Other: Accountability for Gender Issues